

SPORTS

Raps fouled up shot at Magloire

YORK REPORT
martyr@toronto.com

Before Jamaal Magloire was traded to the Milwaukee Bucks last month, the six-foot, 10-inch center was the focus of behind-the-scenes efforts in hopes of getting himself dealt to the New Orleans Hornets to trade him, and specifically to the team in his home state.

Magloire quite sensibly felt he could fortify the Raptors in several areas — rebounding, shot-blocking, leadership, 2-on-1 defense. And when the deal didn't happen, the 22-year-old star was stunned.

He then privately accused the Raptors of fouling to step forth with realistic and/or fair trade offers. Yes, the Raptors talked to the Hornets.

But, no, they mysteriously refused to relinquish the player the Hornets wanted most, Morris B. Jr.

Instead, the Bucks offered Desmond Mason, probably a better all-arounder, and the deal was done.

I know all this because the man who had been personally asked by Magloire to encourage the Raptors to work out a trade told me the story yesterday. And he told me it not to embarrass the Raptors but to express his dismay about the club's mismanagement.

The man is Jay Bhattacharya in Canada and headhunting the Raptors' No. 1 fan. He has never missed a game in Toronto. In fact, he's never even been late for one. He's paid more than $1 million for the court-side seats.

In the process, he has become a confidante and, in some cases, a business partner to a bevy of NBA players and coaches. He is close with Vince Carter, one of only a handful of Torontoans invited to the player's wedding in Florida last year.

Magloire also is one of Bhattacharya's pals, which is why he was asked by the center to try to arrange

WESTCOAST WEEKEND

Kings hold off Canucks

TRAIL MIXTURE Jason Boy (right) has agreed to a five-year, $35 million contract with the Los Angeles Kings. The former deal is worth $18.25 million, US rates. The former deal is worth $18.25 million, US rates, with a $1-million US signing bonus. SOURCE: CBC SPORTS ONLINE

Igorimir Vlasovskiy had two goals and Alexander Prolov had three assists to lead the Kings to a 6-4 win despite three late goals from the Vancouver Canucks in the second period.

Markus Nash had two goals and an assist, and Todd Bertuzzi and Daniel Sedin also scored for the Canucks.

Jarret Stoll scored 33 seconds into overtime to lift the Oilers to a 6-5 victory over the Kings in the final game of the night in Edmonton.

Ryan Smyth scored twice and Alek Hays recorded a goal and three assists for the Oilers, who returned home after a seven-game road trip and won for the third time in four games.

Edman Morneau and Marc-Andre Bergeron also scored in the victory.

Jussi Markkanen made 23 saves for Edmonton, which also beat Detroit in overtime on November 3.

Los Angeles Kings' goalie Alhabeto Escobar (left) and Vancouver Canucks' goalie Roberto Luongo (right) during the game.

Los Angeles Kings' Joe Corvo (left) passes the puck as he is checked into the boards by Vancouver Canucks' Anson Carter during the first period of NHL action in Los Angeles yesterday. L.A. won 5-4.

Bryan Smolinski and Andrew Murray each added a goal for the Kings, while Corvo added an assist. Dany Heatley tallied for Ottawa, which has won six of its last seven consecutive point streak at home.

17 games, since joining the Senators, which is a franchise record.

Los Angeles Kings' Joe Corvo (left) passes the puck as he is checked into the boards by Vancouver Canucks' Anson Carter during the first period of NHL action in Los Angeles yesterday. L.A. won 5-4.

NHL

LAST NIGHT'S RESULTS

Chicago 4, Florida 1
Toronto 4, Boston 1
Buffalo 4, Washington 5
Carolina 3, NY Rangers 1
San Jose 3, NY Islanders 2
Los Angeles 3, Montreal 1
St. Louis 6, Phoenix 0

NBA

LAST NIGHT'S RESULTS

Miami 87, Atlanta 88
San Antonio 88, Houston 80

TOMORROW'S GAMES

Atlanta @ Chicago 4:00 PM
Dallas @ Boston 4:00 PM
Toronto @ Boston 4:30 PM
Philadelphia @ NY Rangers 7:00 PM
New York @ Denver 7:00 PM
Detroit @ Minnesota 7:00 PM
Dallas @ Phoenix 7:00 PM
Columbus @ Cleveland 7:00 PM
LA @ Chicago @ LA @ Lakers 7:30 PM
Chicago @ Seattle 7:30 PM

CFL playoffs

SUNDAY'S GAMES

Edmonton @ Toronto 1:00 PM
Montreal @ Toronto 1:00 PM
Winnipeg @ BC 3:00 PM
Calgary @ Vancouver 3:00 PM

Lions, Eskes eye shot at Grey Cup

BC Lions quarterback Dave Dickenson (left) and Casey Printers (right) warm up during a practice session in Vancouver yesterday.

The BC defence now know their prey after Edmonton's rookie coach Danny Maciocia announced Sunday that Casey Printers will start the Grey Cup Final with a shot at the title.

The B.C. defence now know their prey after Edmonton's rookie coach Danny Maciocia announced Sunday that Casey Printers will start the Grey Cup Final with a shot at the title.

Maciocia's announcement followed B.C. Lions' coach Wally Buono's move to go for the CFL's MVP award. Dan Dickenson, the club's star quarterback, said the team wasn't unexpected as the CFL's MVP for most of the season, completing a No. 1 quarterback for most of the season, completing a CFL record 74 per cent of his passes for 3,338 yards and 20 touchdowns. Just five other quarterbacks have a 70 per cent or better completion rate.

118.8 was also a league record.

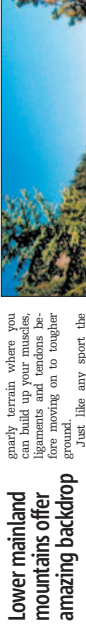

But, he twice missed parts of the season with injuries, including the last four games of the regular season. He was named for a consensus MVP award from a consensus 551,000 yards with 25 touchdowns but also 24 interceptions.

Edmonton captured the CFL's MVP last season, winning it in six games, but he was backup Jason Huntley in the final game of the season with a 97.8 rating and a 100 per cent completion rate with six touchdowns to their 33-26 West Division semifinal win over the CFL.

Although Ray will get the start against B.C., Maciocia says he will have Printers in the US-48 passing for 144 yards and a touchdown versus Calgary.

Edmonton captured the CFL's MVP last season, winning it in six games, but he was backup Jason Huntley in the final game of the season with a 97.8 rating and a 100 per cent completion rate with six touchdowns to their 33-26 West Division semifinal win over the CFL.

Discover off-road trails

Lower mainland mountains offer amazing backdrop

By DAVE MORROW
Metro Vancouver

The incredible mountains that encompass Vancouver provide such an amazing backdrop. It is however what is in these hills that is the real attraction. The North Shore Mountains provide some of the best and most unique running and hiking trail systems in the world.

Here you will find wildlife, incredible views, and a variety of trails for your lungs and rejuvenate your body.

Trail running will help you discover solitude away from the hustle and bustle of the city. Whether you are a seasoned runner who is always carry an extra light-weight jacket, or you are a few things to get you started, the trails may be a little easier on your body than the pavement but the scenery and slippery surfaces make it very challenging.

Take it slow at the beginning and find trails that match your fitness level and ability. Stanley Park and the lower mainland has to offer. If you need some help then check out "103 Hikes" book at Mountain Equipment Co-Op or Trail Peaks (www.trailpeaks.com) website.

Now all you have to do is head out and discover the vast amount of trails that the lower mainland has to offer. You will have to do some research to find the best trail systems complete with directions, GPS co-ordinates and photos. Enjoy!

Dave discovers gravity is his worst enemy in Invermere, B.C.

some website that will show you and endless amount of trail systems complete with directions, GPS co-ordinates and photos. Enjoy!

Gear Guide

Description: The Garmn Foretnr 302 is lightweight, waterproof and thanks to it's GPS sensor, provides you with up-to-date information about your speed, distance and heart rate. If you get lost it will help you find your way back to the start.

Price range: $112 Where to find it: Daskin Equipment 1361 Powell Street, Vancouver; Coast Mountain Sports 4700 Kingsway, Burnaby.

Description: Be comfortable in the Sagol Control Jacket. Excel Stretch material denies water penetration and provides extra warmth. Zip up front. Mother Nature. Zip up sleeves, reflective highlights and front zip pockets make this the ultimate trail jacket.

Price range: $120 Where to find it: Eco Outdoor Sports 792 Granville Street, Vancouver; The Run Inn 2236 West 41st, Vancouver.

Description: Light weight, aggressive reverse lug tread and integrated lacing make the ASICS Gel-Night Hiker a great choice for the forest. GEL Cushioning and the Forest System provide great forefoot and rearfoot shock absorption.

Price range: $139.99 Where to find it: ForeRunners 1396 Marine Drive, North Vancouver; Running Room 2083 Alma Street, Vancouver.

100% job placement in recent healthcare programs

Get the competitive edge

Community Health Care
Graduates from this 21 week receive two diplomas and 6 certificates
-Pharmacy Assistant Diploma
-Medical Office Assistant Diploma
Includes: five week on the job placement

Medical and Dental Office Administrator
Graduates from this 49 week receive two diplomas and 6 certificates
-Medical Office Assistant Diploma
-Medical Office Administration Diploma
Includes: two on the job placement

Practical Nursing
Work in a medical, surgical or rehabilitation ward of acute care hospitals & other financial assistance may be available to qualified applicants
THE COLLEGE OF LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Medical and Dental Office Administrator
Graduates from this 49 week receive two diplomas and 6 certificates
-Medical Office Assistant Diploma
-Medical Office Administration Diploma
Includes: two on the job placement

Practical Nursing
Work in a medical, surgical or rehabilitation ward of acute care hospitals & other financial assistance may be available to qualified applicants
THE COLLEGE OF LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Student Loans, HRDC, EI, WCB & other financial assistance may be available to qualified applicants

VANCOUVER CAREER COLLEGE
Vancouver | Burnaby | Chilliwack | Abbotsford | Surrey | Coquitlam | Kelowna | Victoria

For information on these programs visit www.vancoll.com

Programs Start Nov. 28th!

Raps fouled up shot at Magloire

YORK REPORT
martyr@toronto.com

Before Jamaal Magloire was traded to the Milwaukee Bucks last month, the six-foot, 10-inch center was the focus of behind-the-scenes efforts in hopes of getting himself dealt to the New Orleans Hornets to trade him, and specifically to the team in his home state.

Magloire quite sensibly felt he could fortify the Raptors in several areas — rebounding, shot-blocking, leadership, 2-on-1 defense. And when the deal didn't happen, the 22-year-old star was stunned.

He then privately accused the Raptors of fouling to step forth with realistic and/or fair trade offers. Yes, the Raptors talked to the Hornets.

But, no, they mysteriously refused to relinquish the player the Hornets wanted most, Morris B. Jr.

Instead, the Bucks offered Desmond Mason, probably a better all-arounder, and the deal was done.

I know all this because the man who had been personally asked by Magloire to encourage the Raptors to work out a trade told me the story yesterday. And he told me it not to embarrass the Raptors but to express his dismay about the club's mismanagement.

The man is Jay Bhattacharya in Canada and headhunting the Raptors' No. 1 fan. He has never missed a game in Toronto. In fact, he's never even been late for one. He's paid more than $1 million for the court-side seats.

In the process, he has become a confidante and, in some cases, a business partner to a bevy of NBA players and coaches. He is close with Vince Carter, one of only a handful of Torontoans invited to the player's wedding in Florida last year.

Magloire also is one of Bhattacharya's pals, which is why he was asked by the center to try to arrange